

New York University School of Medicine Outreach Initiatives

Arnold Stern, MD, PhD

Professor of Pharmacology

Dean for Extramural Education Programs

NEW YORK UNIVERSITY

- IN EXISTENCE FOR OVER 150 YEARS
- INTERNATIONAL DISTINCTION IN LIBERAL ARTS, SCIENCE, EDUCATION, THE HEALTH PROFESSIONS, LAW, THE ARTS, COMMUNICATIONS, PUBLIC SERVICE
- HOME TO 33 GLOBAL PROGRAMS AND DEPARTMENTS AND 18 INTERNATIONAL CENTERS AND INSTITUTES
- STUDENTS COME FROM ALL OVER THE WORLD
- ALUMNI ARE LEADERS IN HEALTH CARE, GOVERNMENT, LAW, GLOBAL ORGANIZATIONS AND BUSINESSES
- OUR PRESIDENT SEES US AS AN ENTERPRISE UNIVERSITY, THAT DEFINES ITS MISSION THROUGH THE LENS OF AN URBAN AND GLOBAL PERSPECTIVE

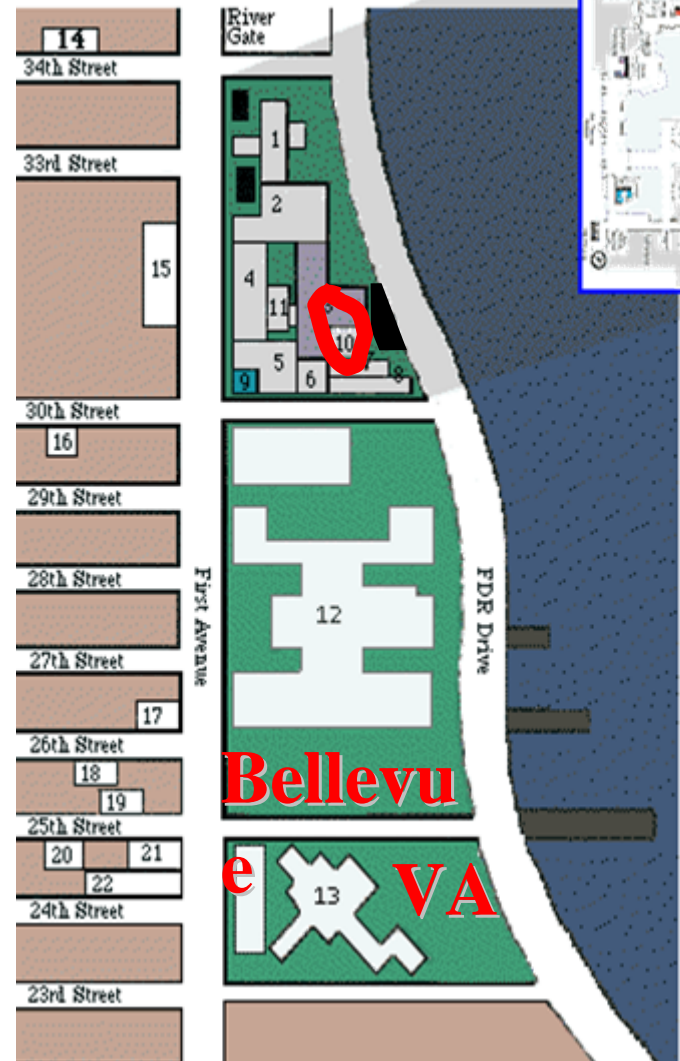

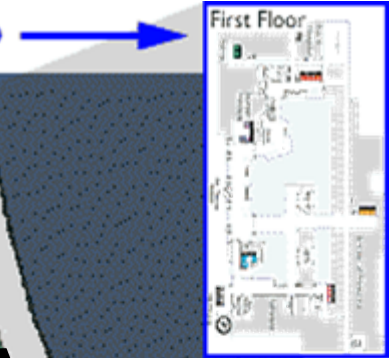

New York University School of Medicine

- A private medical school in the public interest
- 400+ basic research scientists
- Over 3000 part time and full time clinical faculty
- Over 600 medical students, over 200 graduate students and over 70 MD, PhD students
- 6 major teaching hospitals including Bellevue Hospital, the Hospital for Joint Diseases and the Rusk Institute for Rehabilitation Medicine

Where are we?

Click for campus map

Institute of Community Health and Research

- Builds on educational and research strengths at the NYUSM to address health needs of foreign-born New Yorkers
- Provides an innovative approach to community and international health linking research education and patient care
- Improve health outcomes in culturally and economically diverse populations on NYC and their related populations abroad
- Educate current and future physicians and other health care practitioners in concepts, methods and evaluation of integrated approaches to personal community and international health

Structure of the Institute of Community Health and Research

- Center for the Study of Asian American Health
- Center for the Health of the African Diaspora
- Center for Latino Health
- Center for Human Rights

Additional Components of the Institute of Community Health and Research

- Pre-College Programs
- International Outreach

Community Based Research Programs in the Institute of Community Health and Research

- Hepatitis B
- Health Literacy and Interpretation
- Mental Health
- Cardiovascular (syndrome X)
- Obesity and Type 2 diabetes in youngsters
- Genetic Screening
- Data Base Development

Other Outreach Programs

- Center for Immigrant Health
- Center for Hepatitis B
- Center for the Study of Locally Advanced Breast Cancer
- Center for AIDS Research
- Cancer Institute

International Consortium of Pregnancy and Health

- Based in Lausanne Switzerland
- Members from several EU countries and the US
- Access to data bases in northern Europe and the US
- Current research focus on influence of pregnancy on cancer of the breast and ovary

International Health Program

- Provide interested medical students with an opportunity to go abroad to participate in clinical or basic research at sustainable international sites
- Heighten awareness among medical students of issues related to urban and global health

GLOBAL PUBLIC HEALTH PROGRAM

- MASTERS OF PUBLIC HEALTH-GLOBAL PUBLIC HEALTH
- DEVELOPED AND CONDUCTED BY: MEDICINE, DENTISTRY, NURSING, EDUCATION, SOCIAL WORK, PUBLIC SERVICE AND ADMINISTRATION
- DESIGNED FOR STUDENTS THAT HAVE COMPLETED ANOTHER ADVANCED DEGREE
- STUDENTS ARE INVITED TO APPLY FROM OTHER NATIONS
- EMPHASIS IS ON USE AND CRITIQUE OF RESEARCH AND POLICY ANALYSIS AND COLLABORATION AND INTEGRATION OF DISCIPLINES

OPPORTUNITIES

- EDUCATION PROGRAMS: PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT
- EXCHANGE PROGRAMS
- CONFERENCES
- RESEARCH