

SYLLABUS

Subject: Clinical practise – Nursing 2

Study Program: General Medicine

Year of Study: 3rd

Academic year: 2023/2024

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

The aim of the subject is to obtain knowledge and practical skills in nursing care in inpatient surgical departments. Clinical training of students is provided under the supervision of the head of the department and of the head nurse.

SYLLABUS:

Injection administration: subcutaneous injection (insulins, anticoagulants), intramuscular injection, assistance with intravenous injection administration. Intravenous fluid therapy administration: preparing of infusion container, administration of infusion therapy via cannula, assistance with infusion therapy. Blood transfusion therapy administration: assistance with transfusion therapy. Surgical wound management: application of medical and surgical asepsis, application of roll bandage wrapping techniques, basic surgical instruments – preparation of sterile trolley, assistance with wound care, assistance with minor surgical procedures, care of the patient with a drain tube.

Type of activities: Clinical practice - 40 hours/semester

Course requirements: 100% clinical practise attendance